

RBA Commitment Statement

Unigen publicly commits to conducting its business in alignment with the Responsible Business Alliance (RBA) Code of Conduct.

This commitment applies across Unigen's operations and covers labor and human rights, health and safety, environmental responsibility, ethical business practices, and management systems.

Unigen expects its management, employees, and relevant business partners to uphold these principles and supports their implementation through policies, procedures, and ongoing oversight.